SILENT AUCTION IDEAS

Ted Thompson, who is the silent auction chairman for the upcoming District Conference, recently noted that several clubs are looking to donate something different for this year's event, and were looking for suggestions. Thompson replies as follows:

"If I wanted to look at this from a guy's point of view I would think of a gas or charcoal grill, cordless drill or cordless saw, orbital sander, $300 gift certificate from Lowe's or Home Depot, socket tool set, wrench or screwdriver set, flat screen TV or CD player, new shotgun or deer rifle, fishing rod & reel (fresh or saltwater), golf driver or putter, golf bag, Shop Vac, certificate for oil change or tire rotation and balance, or maybe a $300 gift certificate from a major gas company. Anything of value would be appreciated.

"If I looked at this from a gal's point of view, with help from my wife, she might think of a $300 gift certificate from a major grocery store such as Publix, Kroger, Ingles or Wal-mart, an overnight stay at a bed & breakfast, jewelry, a gift certificate for a night out at a restaurant such as Olive Garden, Red Lobster, Outback Steakhouse, or Macaroni Grill, a gift certificate from a major department store as Dillard's or Macy's, a makeover from Belk or Dillard's, or maybe a gift card from Honeybaked Ham."

Now the ball is in our court - what will our club do?
