THIS MONTH IN THE ROTARIAN

Watch your mailbox for the July issue of The Rotarian magazine, with an in-depth profile of John Kenny, the new Rotary International president. Kenny's goals, from clean water to attracting new members, are the main courses of his tenure. Important weekly side dishes are the Falkirk Football Club scores.

Also in this month's Rotarian:

Showing Up For Life - Bill Gates Sr. talks about raising children, supporting his community, and the Gates Foundation's relationships with Rotary. In an accompanying Q&A, the foundation's co-chair tells what it's like having his son as his boss.

Craig's List - A photo essay brings together a Rotarian from Washington, D.C., and a "Lost Boy" from South Sudan, who teamed up to improve a Sudanese village.

Up Front - Mary Stitt, immunization volunteer extraordinaire

Up Front - Mark Backlin honors his wife's Ecuadorian roots with humanitarian missions

Insider - Diversity in an Amsterdam club

ROTARY E-CLUB OF THE WEEK

Did you know there are several Rotary E-Clubs? This is the latest in a series spotlighting these alternate clubs you can visit, virtually.

The Rotary E-Club of the Southeast USA and Caribbean, District 6950, one of only five Rotary eClubs in the USA. It is basically our "local" eClub, serving not only Georgia and surrounding states but also Puerto Rico, the Bahamas, the Virgin Islands, and several other nations.

If I volunteer to serve, I will serve with all my heart.
