THIS MONTH IN THE ROTARIAN

Watch your mailbox for the September issue of The Rotarian magazine, featuring an in-depth interview with actress and activist Mia Farrow, who gives a clear-eyed look at the devastation of Darfur, Sudan, and the plight of its refugees.

Also in this month's Rotarian:

I (Mis)behaved - Novelist and former federal prosecutor Scott Turow says we don't have to accept unethical behavior from public officials.

I'm (Not) Sorry - Most people can tell the difference between genuine remorse and expedient excuses. The ones who can't are usually the ones making the apology. By humorist Joe Queenan.

Back to School in Sri Lanka - The magazine revisits Sri Lanka four years after the tsunami to see how Rotarians rebuilt schools ravaged by the storm.

Up Front - Russian Rotarian and travel agent Stephanie Tsomakaeva

Up Front - In Sweden, teaching anatomy in 3-D

Insider - Rotary Scholar Roxana Saberi released from Iranian jail

Insider - US$1 million contribution for polio eradication
